Need to use a proper script for Samskritam

Even though Bhagavan understands all languages, the power of our Bharatiya languages cannot be matched in expressing our cultural values especially when rising to the plane of conversing with Bhagavan. Of them, the Samskrita bhasha is special in that it is pan-Bharatiya. Hence our scriptures, anushthana paddhati-s and a lot of bhakti sahitya texts are in Samskrita only.

We know that in Samskritam, especially for anushthanam, sound/pronunciation is important. Therefore one should write and read sankalpa shloka-s etc for anushthanam in an appropriate script which is capable of distinguishing all the sounds of Samskritam.

Now the Latin (English) script was evolved for other languages, and we all know the difficulty of correlating spelling and pronunciation even in English. Further, more letters are required to write Samskritam than English as there are more sounds in it. However, since Latin script is widely known, scholars felt it useful to create a Latin-based transliteration system for Samskritam.

In such a system, Latin letters which may be casually applied to different sounds need to be differentiated. For instance in Rama the first or second "a" may denote a long sound. This is differentiated as Rāma or Ramā. Similarly, other marks called diacritics are used to differentiate sounds as in aā iī uū rṛṝ lḷḹ mṃ hḥ nṅñṇ tṭ dḍ sśṣ. Aspirated (mahāprāna) sounds are denoted with an additional h as in k/kh, g/gh, c/ch, j/jh, ṭ/ṭh, ḍ/ḍh, t/th, d/dh, p/ph, b/bh.

However, a system is useful only if followed correctly. If diacritics or added h-s are ignored and we do not read with the intended pronunciation, then the transliteration is no longer useful for its intended purpose. It is very easy to ignore diacritics as they are not in daily use. It would then have altogether been better to use a script which actually has different symbols for the sounds.

Therefore it is strongly recommended to learn a Bharatiya script like Devanagari, Grantha, Telugu, Kannada etc which has clearly different letters to denote the various sounds. Our documents are published in many such scripts.

However, with a view to help people who are not able to immediately learn such scripts, we are now publishing documents in Latin transliteration as well as per the system called International Alphabet of Sanskrit Transliteration (IAST). For the above reasons, people should use these as a temporary measure till they learn a Bharatiya script.

The Samskrita varnamala in IAST is given below with Devanagari equivalents:

ānandagirīye śaṅkaravijaye caturthe prakaraṇe bhagavatpādānāṃ madhyārjunayātrā

Madhyārjunam (Tiruvidaimarudūr), in between Kumbhaghonam and Māyūram (Mayilāduthurai), in Thamizhagam is a kshetra known since the purāna-s. When Shrī Shankara Bhagavatpāda came here, some objected to the Advaita that He taught. Bhagavatpāda then prayed to Parameshvara Himself who is in the Mahālinga, the central mūrti of the temple, to reveal the Truth. Bhagavān then raised out a right hand from His linga denoting affirmation and thrice announced aloud “Satyam Advaitam”.

In remembrance of this event, the sixty-eighth Jagadguru Shankarāchārya Shrī Chandrashekharendra Sarasvatī Shrīcharana and His shishya-varya Shrī Jayendra Sarasvatī Shrīcharana of the Shrī

Kānchī Kāmakoti Mūlamnāya Sarvajna Pītam installed a pratimā of the Divine Feet of Bhagavatpāda inside our Shrīmatam at Tiruvidaimarudūr, and on the top of the Shrīmatam, a Shiva Linga with overtly visible raised hand, and near that a Bhagavatpāda mūrti with hands folded in anjali and had kumbhābhishekam conducted as per shāstra.

Further, They offered archana to the Divine Feet of Bhagavatpāda by woollen shawls having scholars read aloud a hundred and eight quotations fully established in the Non-Dual Brahman, and collected from texts such as the Bhāshya. The scholars were then honoured by these shawls. This event was conducted in current Kali 5065 Shobhana year Vrishchika (Kārtigai) month 20th day, on Krishna paksha Panchami tithi with the Guru Pushya Amrita Siddhi yoga (1963 Dec 05).

As it is said "the wise should celebrate one's Guru", our Kāmakoti Pītādhipati-s have always emphasized remembering what our pūrvāchārya-s have done. That is why the event of Bhagavatpāda's charitra was thus commemorated by the Āchārya-s thus.

Likewise, in similar remembrance of this, today's Kāmakoti Pīthādhīshvara Jagadguru Shrī Shankara Vijayendra Sarasvatī Shankarāchārya Mahaswami had instructed to conduct a special program at the juncture of sixty years being completed. Accordingly in the recent Shobhana year Vrishchika (Kārtigai) month 16th day (2023 Dec 02) Saturday, when Krishna Panchamī and Pushya Nakshatra joined as before, a grand programme was organized. This nakshatra continues to be observed in succeeding years to commemorate the mahotsava of pūrvāchārya times and offer vandana to the Guru.

The Advaita sentences used are provided here. Archana was done by adding "shrī-shankara-bhagavatpādāchāryebhyo namaḥ" at the end.
