

Need to use a proper script for Samskritam

Even though Bhagavan understands all languages, the power of our Bharatiya languages cannot be matched in expressing our cultural values especially when rising to the plane of conversing with Bhagavan. Of them, the Samskrita bhasha is special in that it is pan-Bharatiya. Hence our scriptures, anushtana paddhati-s and a lot of bhakti sahitya texts are in Samskrita only.

We know that in Samskritam, especially for anushtanam, sound/pronunciation is important. Therefore one should write and read sankalpa shloka-s etc for anushtanam in an appropriate script which is capable of distinguishing all the sounds of Samskritam.

Now the Latin (English) script was evolved for other languages, and we all know the difficulty of correlating spelling and pronunciation even in English. Further, more letters are required to write Samskritam than English as there are more sounds in it. However, since Latin script is widely known, scholars felt it useful to create a Latin-based transliteration system for Samskritam.

In such a system, Latin letters which may be casually applied to different sounds need to be differentiated. For instance in Rama the first or second “a” may denote a long sound. This is differentiated as Rāma or Ramā. Similarly, other marks called diacritics are used to differentiate sounds as in āā īī ūū ṛṛ ṝ ṝ̄ ṁṁ ḥḥ ṇṇ ṇ̄ ṭṭ ḍḍ ṣṣ. Aspirated (mahāprāna) sounds are denoted with an additional h as in k/kh, g/gh, c/ch, j/jh, ṭ/ṭh, ḍ/ḍh, t/th, d/dh, p/ph, b/bh.

However, a system is useful only if followed correctly. If diacritics or added h-s are ignored and we do not read with the intended pronunciation, then the transliteration is no longer useful for its intended purpose. It is very easy to ignore diacritics as they are not in daily use. It would then have altogether been better to use a script which actually has different symbols for the sounds.

Therefore it is strongly recommended to learn a Bharatiya script like Devanagari, Grantha, Telugu, Kannada etc which has clearly different letters to denote the various sounds. Our documents are published in many such scripts.

However, with a view to help people who are not able to immediately learn such scripts, we are now publishing documents in Latin transliteration as well as per the system called International Alphabet of Sanskrit Transliteration (IAST). For the above reasons, people should use these as a temporary measure till they learn a Bharatiya script.

The Samskrita varnamala in IAST is given below with Devanagari equivalents:

a अ, ā आ, i इ, ī ई, u उ, ū ऊ, ṛ ॠ, ṝ ॡ, ḷ ॴ, ḻ ॵ

Syamantaka Upakhyanam

The upakhyanas or short stories in our puranas, teach us dharma and adharma. They also instruct us about many traditional practices that have come down through the ages and guide people in the path of good.

Due to the curse of Ganesha on Chandra, seeing the Moon on Shukla Chaturthi, and in particular Bhadrapada Shukla Chaturthi known as Ganesha Chaturthi results in false accusations for a year. It is because of having seen the Moon that way that Shri Krishna was wrongfully accused of usurping (taking away) the Syamantaka jewel.

To expiate this, Maharshi Narada instructed Shri Krishna to observe vrata and worship Shri Ganesha on Ganesha Chaturthi. He did accordingly and thus the blemish was removed. This was a divine sport that was enacted by Maya Krishna Himself to illustrate this dharma.

There is pramanam that parayanam of this upakhyana will expiate this dosha. There is also a sampradaya to at least chant one particular sloka from this.

Parayanam of Syamantaka Upakhyanam of Vinayaka Chaturthi will remove false accusations that may have been accrued without us knowing them and yields all auspiciousness.

This is understood from Shrimad Bhagavatam, Vishnu Puranam, Ganesha Puranam, Mudgala Puranam and the extracts from Skanda Purana quoted in Vrata texts. This has also been expounded in a simple manner by Shri Kanchi Kamakoti Peetadhipati Shri Chandrashekharendra Sarasvati Shricharana in the fourth part of the Dheivathin Kural in the article “Gananatha worshipped by Krishna”.

On the auspicious day of Ganesha Chaturthi, Ganesha must be worshipped with durva grass, various leaves and flowers. The Moon should not be seen on that day. Parayanam of Syamantakopakhyanam must be done and the story must be thought over.

Further, it is said that parayanam can be done whenever the mind is distressed.

Accordingly, let us do anushthana as per the path shown by Shri Kanchi Kamakoti Mulamnaya Sarvajna Pithadipati Jagadguru Shankaracharya Swamigal and attain all auspiciousness.
